Narrator (V.O.)

To end welfare, Mayor Giuliani required all able-bodied welfare recipients to work in city agencies and non-profits for the minimum wage. However, welfare recipients did not receive the rights or benefits of city employees. The Mayor called his workfare plan the Work Experience Program, or WEP.

(Para terminar con welfare, el alcalde giuliani requiro que todos recipientes de welfare que esten de buen cuerpo, trabajen el las agencias de la ciudad y para companias [nonprofit]. En cambio de ese trabajo los recipientes de welfare recibiran el pago minimo legal, y no recibiran los derechos ni los beneficios que reciben los elmpliados de la ciudad. Narrator (V.O.)

Mayor Giuliani claimed WEP provides dignity and leads to full-time employment, but many WEP workers found themselves in WEP for years, doing the same work as city employees for one fourth the pay.

(EL ALCALDE GIULIANI AFFIRMA QUE WEP PROVEA DIGNIDAD QUE SE DIRIGE HACIA TRABAJO DE TIEMPO COMPLETO. PERO MUCHOS TRABAJADORES DE WEP SE ENCONTRARON PARTICIPANDO EN WEP POR MUCHOS ANOS, HACIENDO EL MISMO TRABAJO QUE HACEN LOS TRABAJADORES DE LA CIUDAD, PERO POR SOLO UN CUARTO DE EL PAGO.)

Giuliani comes around saying "Oh this is the best thing that's happened to the city" and all this and it is because you have a free workforce, but outside of that, well this ain't the best thing that ever happened to the WEP worker.

(giuliani viene y dice que "esto es lo mejor que le ha pasado a la ciudad", y es porque tienen una fuerza de trabajo gratis, pero fuera de eso, esto no es lo mejor que le ha pasado a los trabajadores de wep.)

He taught us so much, he was a Super and I could remember him teaching us how to sweep and how to shovel, keep the building clean. And, I guess that's why today I feel my skills like custodial work. When I found out I was in workfare, I mean, I knew I was gonna end up on it sooner or later. I figured maybe it'd be a chance to show my skills of custodial porter service. And my skills were good, they loved the way I worked. They loved the way I carried myself. And I said "I'm gonna take initiative to show them." I wanna show them,

Narrator (V.O.)

Community Voices Heard, or CVH, is an organization of women on welfare fighting for education, childcare and jobs. In 1998, CVH drafted a bill that would create living wage jobs for welfare recipients as an alternative to WEP. It was called the Transitional Jobs Bill.

(la vos de la comunidad, o cvh, es una organizacion de mujeres que reciben welfare, que estan peleando para educacion, cuidado de ninos, y trabajos. En 1998, cvh redacto un proposito que crearia trabajos con ingreso para vivir para recipientes de welfare. Es una alternativa a wep. El proposito fue llamado trabajos de transicion.)

Paul Getsos (V.O.)

The childcare is in the bill.

(el cuidado de niños está en el propósito)

Gail Aska (O.S.)

The bill itself is giving you childcare, it's giving you healthcare, it's giving you at least a $7 and 50 cent wage. It is also giving you the rights of a worker, which is extremely important. You don't have that in workfare or in the WEP program.

(el propósito mismo les da cuidado de niños. Te da seguro de salud. Te da por lo menos $7.50 en pago por hora. También te da los derechos de trabajador, que es sumamente importante. No tienes que estar en workfare o wep.)

Gail Aska (V.O.)

You are not considered a worker, you're not respected as a worker, the so-called rights that every worker should have do not apply.

(no te consideran trabajador, no tienes el respeto de un trabajador, los derechos que otros trabajadores tienen no te aplican.)

Deputy Commissioner Seth Diamond (V.O.)

I'm here today to testify in opposition to Intro 316A, a bill to establish an additional grievance procedure for participants in New York City's Work Experience Program. I wanted to be like Pops. I wanted to be just like him and... and to this day, I'm hoping he looks down and sees that i've become something that he could be proud of. Lookin' at me.

(yo queria ser como mi padre. Queria ser igual como el, y...hasta hoy tengo esperanza que el me mira desde arriba y ve que soy alguien y que soy alguien de cual el puede estar orgulloso.)

José Nicolau (V.O.)

And if I could do something to help change this situation that we have with people on welfare, that would be something, a goal that he could look at and say: "That's my son. I'm proud of my son."

(y si yo pudiera hacer algo para ayudar cambiar esta situacion que tenemos con la gente de welfare, eso seria algo, una meta que el puede ver y decir "ese es mi hijo. Estoy orgulloso de mi hijo.")

José Nicolau (O.S.)

And I feel today that it's not the oppressor we've got to worry about, it's us that let ourselves be oppressed. And I'm not letting myself be oppressed by this.

(y siento que hoy no es el opresor de cual nos tenemos que preocupar, somos nosotros que nos dejamos ser opresados, y no voy a dejarme ser opresado por esto.)

Councilmember Thomas Ognibene (V.O.)

I don't think so. Maybe this isn't really about helping people, 'cause if it was, you'd be doing 20,000 and 50,000 people, you'd really be making a change.

(creo que no. Capaz esto no es de verdad solo para ayudar a la gente. Prque si fuera estariamos haciendolo para 20,000 a 50,000 personas. Asi estariamos de verdad haciendo un cambio.)

So we may have a lot of reasons for passing this and certainly one of them is certainly not to help the people of the city of New York and I would clearly vote No.

The only reason he doesn't want to pass this bill is because it's gonna make him look bad. He thinks WEP is working and it's not. People are dying, people are getting sexually harassed and people like me are dropping out of college, who are trying to getting off the system, and this is just B.S.

(la unica razon que no quiere pasar este proposito es porque lo va a hacer verse mal. El piensa que wep esta funcionanado, y no lo esta. La gente se muere, gente es acosada sexualmente y personas como yo estan teniendo que dejar de estudiar en la universidad, gente que estan tratando de dejar el sistema, y esto es solo mierda.)
