

THE CAMPAIGN

CHAPTER MARKERS FOR DVD

Time Stamp	Chapter Title	Description
0:00	Introduction: Marriage?	How marriage for same-sex couples became legal in California, before Proposition 8.
4:01	Chapter 1: Not Holding Back	Holli tells a new group of volunteers why it's important to give it your all: "Yes on 8" is not holding back.
7:05	Chapter 2: Part of History	Richard has seen a lot of history, and by helping keep marriage legal he plans to be part of it.
17:06	Chapter 3: My Faith Demands	Alison feels moved to volunteer through her UCC Church because for her, Equality is a Christian value.
25:42	Chapter 4: Gay Rights Never	In 1992 Pat Buchanan gave his famous "Culture War" speech at the National Republican Convention.
30:19	Chapter 5: We Won!	The journey to marriage equality included wins , losses, and the wedding of Anne.
34:17	Chapter 6: Feeling a Little Concerned	A volunteer dislikes the "No on 8" TV ads and does not feel that the campaign is going well.
37:02	Chapter 7: Calm Before the Storm	It is the night before the Election, and preparations are nearly complete. Volunteers receive pep talks, training, and a few laughs.
43:49	Chapter 8: Is that Yes on 8?	Alison's son reacts to seeing "Yes on 8" demonstrators, and she reaches her limit.
47:39	Chapter 9: Obama Wins, but Where are We?	The world celebrates the election of President Barak Obama, and the people of "No on 8" grapple for answers.
50:22	Chapter 10: The Morning After	The volunteers, staffers, leaders, and community members get together to process, grieve, and look ahead.
57:34	Chapter 11: Credits	A happy ending, at last.